Rostock.

1. On 19 January 1951, it was learned that the ration distribution point supplying the naval units in Rostock (N 55/P 81) was located at 1 Thuenenstrasse. The distribution point was operated by about 15 Soviets and received bakery products from the Sparre bakery on Friedhofsweg and from another bakery on Doberaner Platz. Naval offices in Warnemuende were supplied with rations from Wismar. (1)

2. The barracks installation on Ulmenstrasse quartered a guard company employed in the Neptun Shipyard; the harbor kommandatura headed by a colonel; and Harbor Detachment [] which was headed by a lieutenant colonel and which included a replacement pool for Soviet naval vessels putting into Rostock harbor. (2)

3. The filling station of the Neptun Shipyard, which was located at the intersection of Luebeckerstrasse and Werftstrasse, supplied fuel exclusively for naval vehicles. (3)

4. The Rostock military post headquarters was located on Ernst Barlachstrasse, near the Steintor. (4)

Wismar.

5. Prior to 22 January, only two of the three buildings of the Marine Kaserne in Sassnitz (N 55/P 87) were occupied. On the evening of 22 January all three barracks buildings were lighted. Truck [] was seen leaving the Marine Kaserne toward Bergen. It carried 18 sailors who had suitcases and parcels with them. (5)

Comments.

- (1) The naval ration distribution point was reported for the first time. Thuenenstrasse is southwest of the railroad station.
- (2) In November 1950 [] the barracks installation on Ulmenstrasse to quarter a naval guard company and harbor detachment with a personnel of 13 officers and 150 EM. []

The naval harbor kommandatura was reported for the first time.

- (3) According to the statement of its location, the filling station is situated in the southeastern corner of the Neptun Shipyard.

- (4) The Rostock military post headquarters or city kommandatura was previously believed to be located on St. Georgstrasse. Ernst Barlachstrasse is probably a renamed street at the Steintor. The headquarters may be located in the former Landesverwaltungshaus (Land Administration building) just west of Steintor. 25X1

- (5) No information on the occupation of the Marine Kaserne in Sassnitz is available. [redacted]
